A. L. SCOTT

A. L. Scott of Pauls Valley, Oklahoma was born to Alva and Mavalene Scott on November 1, 1936 in Wynnewood, Oklahoma and passed from this life on October 9, 2017 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma at the age of 80 years.

A. L. grew up in Wynnewood, Oklahoma and graduated in 1955. A. L. married Shirley Robinson in 1958 in Pauls Valley. They shared 59 years of marriage in Pauls Valley, Oklahoma.

A. L. was a hard worker and a man of morals. He worked in the oil field for years and worked for Lee Way in Oklahoma City. He also was in the trucking business for Dolese. He went back in the oil field as a tool pusher for 7 years for Alameda Drilling. He never did accept his retirement. He looked for a job every day. He also raised paint horses and enjoyed riding. He was a true cowboy. He loved his roping horse Surge. They retired together, either one didn't like that.

A. L. loved his grandchildren very much. Then came the great-grandchildren. Family always came first. He taught his children a lot. He was always there for them. He was a good hard working man. He will be missed terribly by all, but we know he is with his Lord in Heaven.
