“ Ann will surely be missed. Julie I also have memories of Ann's house. Her and Dot took me and the kids camping one week-end and I was in awe of how easy she made the trip seem. We slept in the back of the pick-up. She cooked bacon, eggs, gravy and biscuits all on the camp fire. And she already had her hair done and her face on when she woke up up to eat. We did have some good times. Bounce I too wonder what Heaven will be like. May God bless and keep the Sneed family as they travel.##imported-begin##Kathy Reeder Moore##imported-end##

“ Have you wondered what heaven is like? I certainly have. I wonder where it is, I wonder what we will do there, I wonder if it will be fun and I worry that it might be boring. I wonder what we will wear, what we will eat, what we will do, where we will live. I wonder whether or not we will recognize people in their new bodies and I wonder what those new bodies will actually look like. What will the climate be like? Will the landscape be rural or urban? How will we get around? How high will we be able to jump and how fast will we be able to run? Will those of us who are married still be partners in some celestial way that surpasses marriage as we know it? Will we hang out with angels and eat with Jesus? Will there be animals and, in particular, will beloved family pets who have died put their wet noses in the palms of our hands and beg us to take them for a daily walk. And if they do, where will that walk take us? Will there be seniors and babies and middle-aged people or will we all be the same age? Will we see God face to face and what will he look like? Will all our questions finally be answered?

Anna Knows.

May God Bless your family with comfort and peace in this time of grief.##imported-begin##Clyde "Bounce" Hull##imported-end##

“ My darling Aunt Ann will forever hold a special place in my heart. For the 6 years we lived across the street, she provides the smiles to so many childhood memories. Always quick wit, caring, loving, family first, Ann was genuine in her love.

Special memories for me include being able to go to her house for a Pepsi in the middle of a hot summer day. As the youngest member of the two families living out in the country, I was the blessed recipient of lots of Ann's doting and care and laughter. Going to her house was a treat.

Mom reminded me tonight that she gave me Ann's name as my middle name... She told me about calling Ann to tell her that she was giving me her name, which sealed a special bond.

As an adult, I always had that open invitation of "come see me, I have a bedroom ready for you...". I'm really kicking myself now that I never got around to it.

Karen, Rick, Jimmy - Val and I pour out the love and prayers for you at the loss of your mom.... There are no words to express the feelings that I have for you.

Scott - I have no way to express my concern at the loss of your mate except to say that Val & I care for you and are praying for your peace as you move through the next few days.

God will guide you through....##imported-begin##Julie Hale##imported-end##
