

Barbara Ann Campbell

November 23, 1939 - February 2, 2024

Barbara Ann (Foster) Campbell was born on November 23, 1939 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Barbara passed from this life on February 2, 2024 in Sulphur Oklahoma at the age of 84.

In Oklahoma City, Barbara attended grade school at Cleveland Elementary, Taft Jr. High, and eventually went on to Classen High School where she would meet her husband David Coyne Campbell. David and Barbara were married on December 17, 1955 in Guthrie, Oklahoma and together they had four sons and one daughter.

One of Barbara's favorite things to do was take care of her children. She was involved in everything they did including PTA at their schools and any sports functions they had going on. Barbara carried that onto her grandchildren too and even becoming the dugout grandma. She loved reading, arts and crafts, astrology, and she was a very devout Christian and attended church at Central Church.

Barbara is survived by her three sons, one daughter, one brother, ten grandchildren, and a host of great grand children and other family members. Barbara is preceded in death by her parents, husband, son, and two grandchildren.

Memorial Services for Barbara are pending currently. If you would like to send your condolences to the family you may do so at www.woosterfuneralhomes.com. Cremations services will be directed by Wooster Funeral Home in Pauls Valley, Oklahoma
