

Bessie "Bea" Evelyn Perrymore

December 2, 1931 - January 3, 2026

Bessie "Bea" Evelyn Perrymore was born on December 2, 1931, to Jack Henagar and Bertha Lee (Courtney) Henagar. She passed peacefully from this life on January 3, 2026, in Stratford, Oklahoma.

Bea was a lifelong learner and dedicated educator. She graduated from Stratford High School in 1949 and went on to earn her bachelor's degree in Home Economics from East Central University, followed by a master's degree in Psychology. Her passion for education shaped her remarkable career—she taught for 25 years as an educator and later served for 20 years as a case manager at the Oklahoma State School. Known for her vast knowledge and versatility, Bea was able to teach an impressive 23 different subjects throughout her career.

Beyond her professional life, Bea had a deep love for reading and surrounded herself with books, building a collection that reflected her curiosity and lifelong pursuit of knowledge. For a brief time, she also ventured into the restaurants, adding "restaurateur" to her many talents and accomplishments.

Bea will be remembered for her intellect, dedication to helping others, and her enduring love of learning. Her legacy lives on in the countless lives she touched through education, service, and kindness.

She is survived by her son; Loyd Perrymore and wife Jan; Daughter, Teresa Morris; Grandchildren, Elizabeth Morris and husband Clayton Warren, Brandy Morris; Great grandchildren, Lazarus Morris, Oaklynn Oxley and Paisley Oxley; and a host of other friends and family.

She was preceded in death by her parents; Jack and Bertha Henagar;
Daughter, Jacqueline Perrymore; and Brother, Raymond Henagar.
