“ My son, Stephen, was playing peewee football in the fifth grade, 2004. He was playing for a guy that played at Oklahoma State. Beth asked Stephen what he wanted for Christmas, big mistake!! Stephen wanted an Oklahoma State letter jacket. Out of the love of her heart for Stephen, she bought him an Oklahoma State letter jacket. She said she cringed when she had to pay for it. But, because she loved my son, she bought it. It's funny because we live in Texas, we root for Oklahoma all the time. We still have that jacket to this day and will never give it up. P.S. She made the BEST sausage balls at Christmas and nacho cheese dip.
