Betty Ann Campbell of Pauls Valley, Oklahoma was born to William Sloan (Bunk) and Linda Beatrice (Hays) Winters on December 4, 1935 on the old Kelly Ranch, west of Pauls Valley, Oklahoma and passed from life holding her olive wood cross from Israel on April 25, 2023 in Young Harris, Georgia, while living with family on Lake Chatuge, at the age of 87 years.

Betty spent the first eight years of her life near Lovington, New Mexico before the family settled in Wynnewood, Oklahoma. She met the love of her life, Walter Lee Campbell, in September, 1950 and they married in Gainesville, Texas the same night they graduated high school in 1953. Together they made their home in Van Nuys, California, where Walt worked as a Hollywood studio projectionist for five years before returning to Wynnewood and both worked at the family-owned Deal, Sun and Corral movie theaters. They later owned and operated W.A.'s Egg Farm, part-ownership in Riverside Auto Salvage, the Wynnewood Flower Pot, Savage Video and Renavair and Hangar One vintage aviation parts surplus, traveling to airshows in Oshkosh, Wisconsin and Sun-n-Fun in Florida. Betty and Walter had a special everlasting love and were married for 62 years before Walt's passing February 24, 2016.
