Betty Jo Hilburn

Betty Jo Hilburn of Paoli, Oklahoma was born to Lloyd and Mae (Bradburn) Kissire on July 9, 1929 in Stroud, Oklahoma and passed from this life on March 28, 2014 in Ardmore, Oklahoma at the age of 84 years.

Betty grew up in the Blanton View area and attended school in Paoli, Oklahoma. She married Billy E. Wardwell in April of 1946 in Pauls Valley, Oklahoma. On October 2, 1951, Betty married Dale Hilburn in Wilburton, Oklahoma. Betty worked as a restaurant manager and worked along side Dale in insurance sales. She was a member of Women's Bowling League. In her spare time she enjoyed sports, and any activities her children and grandchildren were involved. She loved to fish and spend time with her family. The most important thing she taught others about life was the "Win-Learn" method: "Lose" not being an option – the smallest thing learned was a win, no matter the final results.
