

Betty Mahorney

February 14, 1935 - June 29, 2014

Mary Alice “Betty” Mahorney of Velma, Oklahoma was born to William Robert and Eula (Townsend) Robinson on February 14, 1935 in Ada, Oklahoma and passed from this life on June 29, 2014 in Pauls Valley, Oklahoma at the age of 79 years.

Betty grew up and attended school in Pauls Valley, Oklahoma. On September 21, 1950, Betty married Kenneth Andrew Mahorney in Gainesville, Texas. Together they made their home in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma, Tennessee, and Velma, Oklahoma. She kept the book on the family business, Mahorney Radio Service for many years. Betty was a poet, songwriter, loved shopping, and was an excellent cook. Betty was a good mother and a good homemaker. She enjoyed taking care of her family. She was a very caring, loving woman, always a smile and sometimes mischievous. If you sassed her she would make an example of what you did to make sure you didn't do it again. Her pride & joy was her pets, Pepper, Lexie and Oscar. Pepper was her baby. She would go the extra mile to help anyone in need. Betty helped a lot of unfortunate families. She loved western music and she enjoyed going to Nashville, Tenn., where her sons lived. Betty was a fancy lady, she drove her Cadillac when she would go shopping. She could fill a basket full in 5 to 10 minutes. She loved the Lord and read her bible regularly. She enjoyed going to church at Light of The World Church and was truly a good Christian. The highlights of her life were family and her grandchildren. Betty will be missed, but will always be in our hearts. Until we meet, we love you.
