“ I met Brenda the same weekend I met Shirley and Kay, she a Sissy made quite the impression on me. I've not seen her in quite same time, that being my fault I should have been a better friend to her, she will always hold a special place in my heart. She was loved by most, and will be missed by all.

“ Sorry for your loss. May God be with you and your family through this time. I enjoyed talking with Brenda and Scott when they would come shopping in Walmart.

“ Brenda was a good and faithful friend. She always had a smile to share with those who were down. She loved God and that brings me much comfort knowing that at her passing. Im going to miss her so much, especially her spunky attitude and great sense of humor. She always could make me laugh when I was down. Im going to miss that the most. Goodbye my friend....til we meet again!

tonight i was turning a petition i had to fill out for my school. i had to send my mommas obituary to state why i missed a week of school the week i lost apart of my soul... so i looked this up, read the words i could barely write because i couldnt see the tears just flowed down my face. Then i seen all of these and how thankful it made me feel for all of you who seen my mothers beauty, her light, her laughs, her heart most of all. i have to admit everyday is a battle of keeping my heart together and my mind just knowing shes not a phone call away, no more of our crazy adventures, or taking the kids for a "scenic ride" lol... but tonight after reading these from everyone of you, these made me feel all the light she left all of us. her memory will forever live in in our hearts. thank you all for sharing!
