

Brigham Conner

July 27, 1928 - February 8, 2012

Fewer knew him by his birth name Mitchell-Reedy than Brigham Conner. His life came to an end poignantly on the day of his 65th wedding anniversary with his beloved bride then known as Rosa Lee Blundell. He was a man born of the land, spending his life ranching and working the lands of Elmore, Pernell, and Doyle. Brigham was known for providing for his family as he always placed their needs before his own. He was born on July 27, 1928 and married on February 8, 1947. He is preceded in death by his: parents Buster Clarence Conner and Dolly Wynona Conner (Big Daddy and Big Momma), brothers William Chester Conner and Jesse Reece Conner, and sister Geraldine Milligan. He is survived in death by his: wife Rosa Lee Conner, son Terry Conner and Wife Christi, their children Brett Conner and Leah Jacob and great grand-daughter Ella-Marie Jacob; daughter Sheryl Elrod and husband Jess and their children Mindy Anthony and Misty Graves and great grand-sons Tanner Akers and Caden Graves. Brigham was a staple at the Badger Den where he loved his cup of coffee and the endless conversations he had with fellow townspeople. Fittingly he will be laid to rest in the same soils that he made a living from, taught his son and daughter to play ball on, and created many cherished memories on the family farm for his grand children and great grand-children alike. Rest in peace Grand-Pa. With love, the family.

“ Rosa Lee, Terry, Sheryl and families: I am sorry to hear of Brigham's passing. I remember basketball, football, band, Christmas plays and whatever else was going on, Brigham was there to support the school and students. He was a kind person and shared kind words. His loss is a loss for a family and a community and his memory will live on in the lives he touched. May you all feel the comfort of God's love and peace. “ I have numerous fond memories of Brigham. Especially cutting the gray out of his hair and shaving him. He and Rosa Lee hauled me to many a football and basketball game. I loved him dearly and will miss his presence at our family holiday events. He will forever be in my heart.

Thanks for the memories and for always being there for us.###imported-begin###Jeannie Satterwhite###imported-end###
