“ I would ask Mr laDue every time i would see him if he had being golfing. His face would light up talking about golfing (I myself knowing nothing about golfing). He would talk about his game with Mr Cooper. I would also ask if either one would get a hole in one and he would just laugh. (He never lost his toothpick he would have in his mouth). I will miss seeing him in Walmart. May God grant the family peace through this difficult time. Libby
