

Burke McConnell

August 29, 1923 - December 24, 2008

Burke McConnell was the 4th child born to Eugene and Clara McConnell on August 29, 1923, in Tatums, Oklahoma. He married Mattie Mae Carr in 1941 and was the father of 12 children. They also fostered twelve foster children. In 1958 he was baptized in the name of Jesus in the Free Pentecostal Holiness Church in Tatums and was filled with the Holy Ghost and lived a holy life. He believed in being faithful to attend worship and was a great example to his family by taking them with him. Burke was a devoted father and loving husband. He enjoyed raising gardens and sharing the produce with his neighbors. He retired from the Fox School where he was employed as a bus driver and custodian. Burke went to be with the Lord on December 24, 2008 after a short illness.
