

Chad Airington

July 23, 1978 - January 26, 2022

Chad Eric Airington of Elmore City, Oklahoma was born to Leroy Airington and Kim (Caldwell) Williams on July 23, 1978, in Duncan, Oklahoma and passed from this life on January 26, 2022, at the age of 43 years.

Chad grew up and attended school in Fox, Oklahoma. After high school, he worked at the Dollar General warehouse then made his way to Wal-Mart DC. At that time, he and his future wife, Amanda Paul, started to date. On September 6, 2002, they married in Foster, Oklahoma. Chad and Amanda made their home in Elmore City, Oklahoma. Later in life, Chad changed careers to the oil field, which he loved. He worked at Forum as a loader then he got his CDL and became a knuckle boom operator. From there he moved to Big Iron when Forum closed. His calling then went to being a truck driver and locater on a directional drilling crew at Bradford Boring in Chickasha, Oklahoma. Chad was a hard worker and always provided for his family. His goal in life was to always make sure his family was taken care of and to make sure his place of employment knew they could count on him.

Chad was a man of few words to most but if he knew you, he would visit for hours. If he were not speaking about Amanda and the kids, he would talk on and on about work. Chad loved to tell stories of his childhood fishing trips to Texoma with his dad. He loved to aggravate all the extra kids who were at their home when he was in from work. When he wasn't working, he and Amanda spent countless hours traveling with their sons, Brysen and Blake to sports activities and other events. Chad not only loved his children and time spent with them, but other's children as well. In his spare time, he enjoyed fishing and hunting. The highlight of his life was his family. He will be missed by so many.

Chad is survived by:

Wife: Amanda of the home

Sons: Brysen and Blake of the home

Mother: Kim Williams and husband Billy of Duncan, Oklahoma

Sister: Tiffannie Airington of Ratliff City, Oklahoma

2 nieces: Gabrielle Airington and Katrinna Alkire

Chad was preceded in death by his father, Leroy Airington

Memorial services are scheduled for 11:00 a.m., Monday, January 31, 2022, at the Elmore City Cemetery with Joe Terrell officiating. You may send condolences to the family at www.woosterfuneralhomes.com.

“ Any time i drove by Chad and Amanda's home if he wasn't busy working outside he was doing something with his boys. Chad was such a good man. He was good to my brother that lived across the street from him. I am forever great full to him and Amanda for that. I know you'll be missed by many people. Continued prayers for all Chads family , friends and coworkers.

“ My name is James Toney. I am from Huntsville, Texas and worked under Chad for Nelson Directional Drilling in Colorado Springs, Colorado from June 1, 2020- November 25,2020. Chad and I became close friends and co-workers. He taught me a lot about the Oilfield and Drilling in our time together. We also spent a lot of our off time together there in Colorado away from our families. He treated me very well and we became close. He let me room with him the last month and half of the job there and we kept in touch hoping to be able for me to come back and work with him in Oklahoma. I consider Chad my friend and he was always good to me. I will miss him. He was a good man.

“I met Chad about 6 months ago when he came to work for me. He fit in right away with the rest of the guys. Always laughing and smiling! He will be missed by all of us. It's very hard to find hard workers like Chad. He will be greatly missed and will leave a void in our company forever I can still hear that laugh. RIP my brother!

“ We met Chad and Amanda at the chicken auction. My baby fell in love with them. Always smiling and wanting them to hold her. Chad would take her and go to work with sage in tow or Amanda would rock her to sleep in the July heat. Chad always made us laugh and you could clearly see his love for Amanda. He will definitely be missed.
