“ Charlena always had a beautiful smile and contagious laugh..I took twirling lessons from her to become a twirler in the Elmore City High School Band.. She was beautiful and so kind ..I remember stopping to see her after her 3rd baby was born..She just took it all in stride..She and Johnny were at Penn Square Mall when I just happen to be working there that day..They had their arms around each other as they were walking..I thought they were so cute together and so in love after 5 kids and many years together..Praying for Johnny and family..
