“ Charlotte and Charles, It is heartbreaking to learn of my college friends through such a tragedy. It is hard to comprehend that it has really benn over 40 years. What a blessing Chuck was to you in those early years together! It is unimaginable to bear the pain and loss of one's child. I am so sorry for your loss. Because, I only just learned about it, I read the previous postings on this site and learned that Chuck, as well as the both of you...and your other children... are much loved and much respected. God be with you through this difficult time. With love still, Phyllis##imported-begin##Phyllis (formerly Rhoads) Brown##imported-end##

“ Charlotte, Kristin and Bryan, I am really sorry to hear about Chuck's death. I regret that I learned about it too late to attend the memorial service. I was a classmate of his, and I remember what a neat and funny person he was. I'll never forget him dressing up as Zoro one year. You all are in my thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Pamela Nelson Bowie##imported-end##
