

Cleo Arnett Bray

March 28, 1920 - February 15, 2015

Cleo Arnett Bray was born on March 28, 1920 in Vanoss, Oklahoma to Gardy and Pauline (Holmes) Arnett and passed from this life on Sunday, February 15, 2015 at the age of 94 years.

Mrs. Bray spent her childhood days in Pauls Valley, Oklahoma in the Whitebead community and later lived in the Satterwhite area, returning to the Whitebead community in 1990. She was a faithful Christian woman and was a member of Satterwhite Baptist Church. Her Christian values were reflected in the most important lessons she taught her children. She frequently reminded them to always do their best and "if you can't do it right, don't do it". She wanted them to understand the importance of always paying your bills on time. "If unable to meet your obligations, go down one side of the street paying those you can and up the other side of the street notifying those you aren't able to pay". She was never afraid of hard work and had worked in the broomcorn and cotton fields. Mrs. Bray was a homemaker and stay-at-home mom until her children finished school. She later worked for Stromberg-Carlson Manufacturing Company in Gene Autry, Oklahoma.

Spending time with her family was the highlight of her life. In her quiet moments she was comforted when sewing, crocheting and doing various craft projects.

Mrs. Bray was preceded in death by her three husbands, Jesse Harris, Furman Horn and Cletus Bray. She was also preceded in death by her parents Gardy and Pauline Arnett, brothers Eugene and Grover Brown, sisters Alva

Turner and Lorene Clark, son Jessie Harris and daughter Marie Clark.

“ One of the sweetest things I have ever seen was when Grandma Cleo embraced someone. She gave some of the deepest hugs. It was like she was trying to physically transfer the love she felt for you. You could tell that she took the giving of love very seriously. So many people I love and admire are in many ways who they are because they call her Mother, Grandmother, and so forth. My Husband , Sammy Knight Jr. , loved this woman so very deeply and we together will do our best to honor her in all we do. Work hard, Pray Hard, Love Hard. We Love you always Grandma Cleo.

“ It has been a joy to have this woman in my life all these years. She was a wonderful person and I loved her dearly. She was more of a mother instead of a mother in law to me. Love you Mom and I will see you again.
