

C. M. "Rob" Robbins

June 25, 1921 - February 25, 2009

Cadmus Monroe "Rob" Robbins was born on June 25, 1921 in Lindsay, Oklahoma to William A. and Mattie (Davis) Robbins and passed from this life on February 25, 2009 in Pauls Valley, Oklahoma at the age of 87 years. Rob grew up in the Purdy community and attended school at Oak Grove. He left home at a young age to go to Civilian Conservation Corps – an opportunity during the depression for young men to work in Colorado and send money home to their families. When World War II broke out, he joined the Navy in 1943 and served on the U.S.S. Shenandoah as Pharmacist, 2nd class from 1943 to 1945. Robbins was cited with many honors during his service to the United States. On December 31, 1944 while on leave from service, he married Ruth Hart in Oklahoma City. He studied his life-long profession while in the Navy and moved to Pauls Valley in 1949. He was a registered medical technologist and x-ray technician at the Pauls Valley General Hospital until he retired in 1987. Mr. Robbins was a Scout Master for five years, was a member of the Masonic Lodge and Rotary clubs. Both he and his wife, Ruth were Life Masters of the American Contract Bridge League. He served as a board member for the Pauls Valley Chamber of Commerce and served as chairman of the board of directors for the Pauls Valley Civic Center. He served as chairman of the Blood Bank Committee and was a board member on the Red River Regional Blood Bank of Wichita Falls, Texas. Robbins was elected to the city council on April 3, 1985. He served as mayor of Pauls Valley from May 1991 until his resignation from the council on April 6, 1994. He was a member of the First Presbyterian Church where he was an elder and served on the Board of Deacons. Mr. Robbins enjoyed collecting Indian arrowheads. Over the years, farmers would call him when they happened to plow up arrowheads in their fields. He had quite a collection of arrowheads and Indian artifacts.

Mr. Robbins is survived by:

Son – Lloyd Robbins and his wife, Gayle of Pauls Valley

Daughter – Carolyn Peters and her husband, Tom of Grapeland, Texas

2 Brothers – Phindle Robbins of Lindsay, Oklahoma and Bill Robbins of Lexington

“ Carolyn and Lloyd,

i am so sorry to hear of your loss. It is so hard to give up our parents. I worked with Rob at PVGH for many years and he could always be counted on for a good smile when I needed it most. My fondest recollection of Rob is when my son was about 3 years old. At that time we worked together at the Clinic. Eddie smashed his hand in the car door and Rob assured him that an x-ray would fix everything. Eddie came out of x-ray in Rob's arms with a big smile on his face declaring that "Wob's machine fixed him up". I can't think of Rob without thinking of that event. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your families.

“ Carolyn,

It's Friday night, so you may not even be home from your Dad's service. I know your time with your family has been very precious. With all those kids, grand kids and great grand kids, he left quite a legacy. I'm so happy you are right there in the middle of that. May time and God heal your grief and give you the assurance that Rob is back with God where he belongs.

Love,

“ Lloyd and Gayle, Rob was a very special man to me when I worked for the Pauls Valley Daily Democrat and he worked at the hospital. I could always count on a friendly talk with him when every we would meet. My Prayers are with you and the rest of the family. Just a thought to Comfort you. Imagine, if you can, a place where mountains meet the sky, Where fragrant flowers fill the air and winding streams flow by...Imagine, if you can, a world where joy replaces grief, For thinking of this wondrous place will bring your heart relief. Thinking of you today, and wishing you comfort and peace of mind.##imported-begin##Harold Bradley##imported-end##

“ Carolyn,

My prayers are with you and your family at this time of your loss.

Rob was always one of the happiest person that I ever met. He always had a smile on his face. He WAS the only person that was ever able to take my blood on the first try. Usually they try 4 times at least. When I was pregnant I requested Rob to draw my blood. Otherwise I would look like a pincushion.##imported-begin##Phyllis "Rozell" Myers##imported-end##

“ Hi Lloyd, Hi Gayle--You know it's sad that in order to hear from old friends they first must read about the loss of a loved one. Lloyd, I remember Robby very well, especially from the time he spent bowling on teams and sweepers at the Valley Bowl with my mom & dad all those years. I know you're suffering a great loss in your family (glad to read about all the children & grand children in the obit). I wish you & Gayle and your family all the best in the future, your old friend and classmate, Wayne Bean.##imported-begin##Wayne Keith Bean##imported-end##

“ Rob was very special to me and my family. I remember when he was in the Navy in WW2 and came home on furlough to visit us and tell stories of the war. He took my family & I on trips to Stamford, Texas to visit Grandpa Davis and Aunt Lucille and Aunt Timmie. Those were such memorable trips for a small girl who had never been out of Lindsay, Okla. Ruth counseled me when I got married in 1954--and Rob welcomed my new husband! I will miss him very much! Love, Verna Lee McDaniel Humphreys##imported-begin##Verna McDaniel Humphreys##imported-end##

“ Carolyn and Lloyd,
I remember how much Uncle Rob loved his/our family. I loved him with all of my heart and will miss him so very much. Stories of his life will remain with us forever. I pray God sends you comfort and peace as Uncle Rob looks down upon you from heaven.
Love,

“ Cad, My cousin i always had great admiration of. After receiving notice of his death lots of past life was thought of. I remember most was my dad (known as Blackie) telling bout the times hiding his fiddle from Cad. & my mom(aunt Bea) would get it down when my dad had went to work &let cad play with it. & never ccould figure out why it was out of tune when he wanted to play it! One of many stories. He will be missed. Larry&wife Pat###imported-begin##Larry mcdaniel###imported-end##

“ I just wanted to let you all know how very sorry I was to hear about Rob. He was always one of my favorite people. I have so many fond memories of him and Ruth involving my parents. We all loved them both. Again, I am so sorry he died, but so very glad that he lived. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
