“ I'm so lost in this world without you! I expect you to walk in and start talking smack and picking on Chloe. Every morning she wakes up and says good morning Uncle Colby I love you with all of my whole heart. Anytime she sees a picture of you she kisses and hugs it and tells you what shes been doing or how much she misses you. At night she makes sure we go outside and she picks a star and tells you goodnight Uncle Colby don't let the bed bugs bite. She loves you more than anything in this world! She's been getting in trouble at daycare for picking on that little girl and I know you see what she's doing and you're cracking up saying that's my girl. I love and miss you soooooo very much! All I want to do is bring you back to us not just for us but for these kids. You were and still are the most amazing brother and person! I know that one day we will be together again! Honey and Pops are at such a loss but the little things that you do to let them know that you are there are amazing and help them so much. I know your spirit is around us at all times I just wish that I could see you, hug you, fight with you anything one more time! I love you so very much and still can't believe you are no longer with us but I know that you are in spirit! I just wish it was here on Earth. You were very much loved by so many people and a greatly missed! I love you my lil brother and these kids love you more than you will ever know. Chloe will always know who her Uncle Colby was and how much you loved her. You didn't have the chance to make her mean and tough but I think you are working on it now in your way! She still repeats what you always called her and that's the only time she doesn't get in trouble for saying bad words. Chloe and I love and miss you with all of my hearts!

“ The words cannot describe how much i miss the love of my life and soul mate! One day we will meet again. I know that God gave me one of the greatest Guardian Angels there could ever be... I love u so much and miss you more each day. I still remember all the stories we've told eachother over ther years and the way you felt about certain things I'm sure your looking and watching over me everyday.I still wear the two beautiful rings you got for me and all the clothes u came home and surprised me with. i'll never forget how happy you were when you would come home with one of the surprises you bought for me with the biggest smile on your face. I will always love and miss you. Your babygirl and love of your life Valerie

“ To the love of my life i miss you so so much. There's not a day gone by that i don't think about you!! I wish you could be here with me, but i know your in good hands and getting taken care of. The world will never be the same without you. You are missed by so many people. I willl never forget all the good times we got to spend together in the last seven years of my life which was the best time of my life. i just wish we could of had our family that we were trying so hard to build together.. If only we could of had enough time to do everything we wanted to do. i will always tell our nieces and nephews about you and they will never forget their uncle Colby and i will keep them tough like u made them. I cant wait for Bryson to get old enough to raise him strong and tough like bubba. Were going to miss you every step of the way!! Bryson's first birthday is coming up and i dont know what im going to do without u there. I will always tell Bryson how cool of an Uncle he had. Brooklyn and Aliah ask about you all the time and its so hard to tell them about you and Aliah still dosent understand why his Uncle Colby cant be here with him. I have to take them outside at night and guess which star is you and they always pick the brightest star of them all. Sky keeps me strong and shes only nine you can defintley tell you helped raise her and im going to do whatever it takes to stay in Sky's and Chloe's life. those our my babies too! love your babygirl and the love of your life Valerie!
