“ Dale Hughes, a very kind and warm person. In my early years with Seagate, and my first visit to Oklahoma City, I was in the same plane as Dale. I said hi to him and was pleasantly surprised he remembered me. He also offered me a ride from the airport to the hotel as his dear wife was waiting to receive him home.

May the LORD's peace and comfort be with his dear family during this time of bereavement.

“ You were my first friend when I moved to Elmore, and became my best friend through high school and college. My friend, I'll miss our golf games whenever I visit. Just a few weeks ago, I told you I wished we lived closer together. Get us a tee time in heaven, but keep the time open. I'll miss you dearly. God bless.

“ Dale and I first met while working at Honeywell Information Systems which eventually became Seagate Technology. We rented an apartment together in OKC and we came to know neither one of us knew the first thing about cooking. Dale's specialty was mac and cheese. He had an old skillet that he cooked it in and it was very seldom cleaned, He scrapped out the old and started a new batch. When your young and hungry you can eat just about anything.

Dale and I became fast friends for over 35 years, doing just about everything together from work, to football, to golf and die hard love for Oklahoma Football! One of our last conversations was about attending the Sugar Bowl, I so now wish we had gone.

I love you Buddy and I know someday we will be playing golf together on the greatest of all golf courses in Heaven. Rest well!
