

Dalton and Wyatt Ables

September 29, 2005 - March 5, 2011

Dalton and Wyatt Ables entered this life on September 29, 2005, identical twins born , in Norman, Oklahoma to Brandy Ables, and entered eternal life on Saturday, March 5, 2011 at the age of 5. The boys spent the majority of their childhood days in Foster, Ok before moving to Harrah, OK.

They were born two minutes apart, with Wyatt being ahead. They were climbers, any tree, or anything they could climb. The higher they could climb; the better. They loved to play crash with cars, and also loved playing with tractors, and other toys. They were both outgoing, and loved helping their mother anytime. When one of the boys was passive, the other was aggressive. They were in cahoots in everything they did. The neighbor's big apple tree was their favorite hangout. They were free as birds and they switched roles easily.

They had the twin language down to a tee. Since they were identical twins they loved playing games on adults, who could not tell them apart.

Sometimes, they were asked just one time too often if they were identical twins, so they would roll their eyes and look at whoever would ask such a question.

The boys were faithful members of the First Baptist Church of Elmore City, OK where Dr. Bruce McCray was the only pastor they had ever had, and they attended Sunday School where Debbie Balentine and Renee Chapman taught them about the Lord.

The boys are survived by:

Mother: Brandy Ables of Harrah, OK

Grandparents: Jim and Camelia Drake of Childress, TX and Esther and John Key of Tuttle, ok

Aunts: Camelia Griffith of Harrah, OK, Angelina Drake of Summit, AR, Leah Afill of Perkins, OK

Uncles: Stephan Ables of Foster,OK and Phillip Ables of Norman, OK

Funeral services for the twins are pending with Wooster Funeral Home.
Further service information will follow in the Pauls Valley Democrat.

“ My daughter, Ellie, misses her friends, Wyatt and Dalton, at KCCC. When she talks about them she says they "shared" and took turns when playing with her. She says they were OK for being boys. ;)

I'm so sorry for this horrific loss. Hope you have LOTS of photos to remind you of how precious (and ornery) your precious sons were. And I hope you have a wonderful support system to help you grieve.##imported-begin##Tamatha Mosier##imported-end##

“ Brandy, I am so very sorry. The boys spent time here playing with our animals and climbing. They especially enjoyed the goats and chickens. They love to gather the eggs and take some home for breakfast. They really enjoyed life. My husband is not able to come to the funeral. You will be in our prayers. “ My thoughts and prayers are with you at this awful time. Those lil boys could give you a good laugh! At the last Fire Dept benefit they were running around poking a snake with a stick and setting off the siren to one of the trucks... I remember David yelling to turn it off and as soon as they saw him coming they took off grining from ear to ear and giggling. They are all going to be missed dearly!###imported-begin##Curtis & Julie Condit###imported-end##

“ I was the boys' teacher at daycare. Reading the obituary, i'm reminded of my time with them. They DID love to climb and they DID love to trick me as to which one was which! One had a blue cup and the other had red. I would hold up the cups that had their names on them and ask "ok, where's Dalton?" They would both answer because they both wanted the red one. I will remember them always. My heart goes out to the family and friends and everyone's lives they touched, which is a long list. They surely touched mine.##imported-begin##Jenny Campbell##imported-end##
