

Dean Allen King

August 1, 1949 - March 30, 2012

Dean Allen King of Sulphur, Oklahoma was born to James Dean and Mary Bell King August 1, 1949. He passed away March 30, 2012 after a long and tiring battle just to be able to breathe. He graduated from Capitol Hill High School in 1968. Dean worked as an orderly at the University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Center and studied for his nursing degree. After becoming a nurse he worked in Urology and Surgery and loved caring for those patients for 38 years. He lived in Oklahoma City most of his life and moved to Sulphur, Oklahoma as he prepared for retirement.

He loved and cared for his herd of cats. The cats brightened his days with their antics. As a younger man he was a member of the Selectman Methodist Church in Oklahoma City and later the First Sulphur United Methodist Church. Dean is preceded in death by his father James Dean. He is survived by his mother Mary Bell King, sister, Mary Margaret King, and his life partner, Jack Foster. The family would like to express their thanks for his final days of care by the staff of the Norman Specialty Hospital, Norman, Oklahoma. They would especially like to thank Nurse Elaine.
