

Deloris Faye Stout

February 8, 1943 - June 21, 2024

Deloris Faye (Batts) Stout was born on February 8, 1943 in Tucumcari, New Mexico to Roger Batts and Gladys Hogan Batts. She passed away on June 21, 2024 in Frisco, Texas at the age of 81.

Growing up, Deloris excelled in sports and achieved All-State honors in Basketball during High School. She was recognized for her speech skill and loved drama class. Deloris had built-in playmates her whole life, including her three sisters and one brother. The siblings loved playing together and worked hard to support themselves.

Deloris graduated from Canadian Texas High School and went on to obtain her master's degree in Special Education from West Texas State University. She became a dedicated Speech Pathologist for Elmore City School and eventually retired as the Director of Special Education. Deloris was married to Jim Stout on July 22, 1966 in Tulia, Texas, and they remained married until his passing.

Deloris was a devout Christian woman and attended the First Baptist Church in Elmore City, Oklahoma, where she volunteered in many roles. She was a Bible study teacher, a Sunday school teacher, a GA leader, Acteen Leader, and was often known as "The Shower Lady." Deloris loved reading, fishing, cattle, horses, cooking, and doing things for others. She was even featured on HGTV for her cakes, but her greatest joy was teaching others and advocating for the underdog while leading people to Christ.

Deloris always taught others to do the best they could with what God has given them, emphasizing that everyone is important, and we must care for those who can't always care for themselves. She made a significant impact on many lives and would have wished for everyone to know Christ, think of others, and volunteer their time. Deloris will be deeply missed by all who loved her.

Deloris is survived by her Son, Paul Stout and wife Marsha; Daughter, Cynthia Brannies and husband Bryan; Brother, James Batts and wife Sandy; Sister, Glenda Day and husband Bill; Grandchildren, Cierra Merrill and husband Andrew, Brittany and husband Timothy Hamel, Coda Stout, Caleb Stout, Andrea Tharp and husband Coty; Great-grandchildren, Isaiah Hamel, Mavis Hamel, Ryleigh Tharp, Ashton Tharp, and Ledger Tharp.

Deloris is preceded in death by her husband, Jim Stout; parents, Roger Batts, and Gladys Hogan Batts; Sisters, Cora Shaw and Marie Davis.

Graveside services for Deloris will be Wednesday, June 26, 2024 at 10:00 AM at the Elmore City Cemetery under the direction of Wooster Funeral Home.

“ The Gressett family send our love and condolences. We are sad to learn of Dee's passing. She and Jim were good friends of my parents beginning in their early days in Tulia. Surprisingly, I still have memories of Dee and Jim from those earliest years of my life. We moved from Tulia when I was five. Sure is hard to let go. Even when we know they are in the hands of their loving Lord. May God meet you and sustain you in your grief. 🙏❤️🙏

“ Some of my best childhood memories involve Jim and Dee and being at their house. I'm so fortunate I was able to grow up in the same town with my aunt and uncle and two cousins. I will miss her so much. I'm so thankful for the good things she instilled in me.
