“ God does not make His people immune to the changes of human life but gives us grace to see things through to a satisfactory conclusion. Throughout it all God stays the same and controls human events in should a way that those who trust in Him will fine the comfort and the courage to endure.

Aunt Faye and my cousins so as your heart is sadden I do also share in your sorrow: my prayer is that each day will get better for you. I'm so glad that we are family and I believe that "The Peters Family " is truly gifted by God :with the strong roots of BP and Mary Peters. My life has been blessed down through the years because of the Peters bloodline: we all have an awesome task ahead of us to continue on the love and the sweetness that Dennis showed our family daily.

I will miss hearing him call me Lancee'

Sorry for the late response: do know that my family and I have been praying for you.

“ Sending prayers to the family of Dennis Peters. I will always remember the smile and kindness of this gentleman. I will also remember how he loved his family immensely and would give his last dime to anyone in need. He believed in treating everyone with respect and his word was his bond. So many times he told me stories of his grandbabies and how proud he was of them. May God bless you all and may Dennis rest in peace.

I will always you coming to my home in Norman, we were having dinner and I offered you some. I had cooked green pepper and rice. You said you had never had before but said you liked them. From then on when ever I saw you, you always asked me to fix you some more. I am so sorry I never did.
