Dewayne was such a kind and funny man. He loved his family first and foremost. We enjoyed seeing him and Lena every year at the Alltel picnic. Loved playing those horseshoe games. He will be greatly missed. Prayers for the family.

“ I met DeWayne in 1981, I was a new member on the Elmore City Fire Department. Even though DeWayne had been on the department a while, he never spoke down to us or treated us like the goofy kids that we were. His patience and smile were traits that I was always envious of. I don't think I ever saw him get aggravated or lose his temper. He was a wonderful man. I am so sorry for your family's loss, but I am more proud that each of you had him in your lives! Tammy Thompson
