“ Every time I see a tomato I will always remember her since every friday I went to her house she gave me a tomato from her garden and we ate it together! Also on every Friday my dad, her and I went to go eat no matter where. She taught me that a true Colmenares never cries. And a few days before she Passed away she told me that she loved me more than anything and to care of myself. It's even sadder that no one told us (mom dad sister brother and I) that she was sent to the hospital. Anyways I will love her and I will miss her SOOO much!###imported-begin###Azalea Julya Colmenares###imported-end###
