“ *There is so little one can do or say to bring your family consolation at this time other than for you to know that this is a loss felt by me personally, and further know that Doris is no longer in pain which is in itself a blessing. She touched so many lives in her work as a legal assistant, and was a great help to me in my both my personal life long before I married and also in my career as a fellow legal assistant. We were friends outside the office and “double-dated” when I started courting my first husband about 50 fifty years ago; and after his death Benne and my present husband became friends. I cherish the memories we made along those years. Doris was a hard worker and a wonderful parent to the three children she married and the two to which she gave birth, as well as the grandmother and great-grandmother, raising some of them as well. She gave me invaluable help in raising my own son. We had a lot of fun along the way, going on lots of week-end trips together with Benne and Lee to bowling tournaments and concerts or to our legal seminars. She fought a hard battle, but just wore out. Benne, my love, sympathy and prayers are with you and all of your family, as all of you you will have many happy memories to share with each other in the future of this wonderful, loving woman. My husband David joins me in expressing our sincere condolences to all of your family at this time. May God bless all of you. Love to all,
Wilma Bettes, now*
