

Dorothy Joan Schnorrenberg

September 24, 1928 - December 11, 2010

Dorothy Joan Schnorrenberg passed away on Saturday, December 11, 2010, in Fort Worth, Texas, at the age of 82. She was born on September 24, 1928 in Wetumka, Oklahoma, first child of Norma and Adrin Burrus. She was preceded in death by her husband, Eddie Port Schnorrenberg, infant sons, David Port Schnorrenberg, and William Todd Schnorrenberg, and Sisters Linda Evans, and Mary Kiefer. She is survived by her two children and their spouses, Jim and Gwen Schnorrenberg, of Owasso, Oklahoma, and Christy and Alan Cody, of Fort Worth, Texas. She leaves behind 5 grandchildren – Scott Schnorrenberg, and wife, Amy, of Huntsville, Alabama; Nathan Schnorrenberg, and wife, Tiffany, of Edmond, Oklahoma; Zachary Schnorrenberg, and wife, Staci, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; Joanna Reeder of Dallas, Texas and Tommy Reeder of Tulsa, Oklahoma, and 4 great-grandchildren: Noah, Sophie, Kate, and Samuel Schnorrenberg, with one on the way. She is survived by two sisters, Lea Billington, of Houston, Texas, and Sue Knight, of Stillwater, Oklahoma, and one aunt, Alma Grissom of Wynnewood, Oklahoma, and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins. Joan was born in Wetumka, Oklahoma, and married Port Schnorrenberg on September 12, 1948. They made their home in Pauls Valley, Oklahoma, where they were active members of the Pauls Valley Church of Christ, where she taught Sunday school, led ladies Bible studies, and served in so many ways to reach people with the love of Christ. She owned and operated Joann's Fabrics, as well as assisted her husband, Port, in his business. Joan was extremely active in promoting and supporting her town. She was an integral member of the team to develop the Pauls Valley Depot and served as a docent at the depot museum. Joan loved to bake and share her cookies with friends. She loved to travel, read, walk, sing, and spend time with her family. She was the best mother and wife anyone could have, and lived a full life, with no regrets. She has now received her reward, and has entered into eternal life with her Lord and her loving husband, Port.

Funeral Services for Mrs. Schnorrenberg will be held on Wednesday, December 15, 10:30 a.m. at the Pauls Valley Church of Christ, Minister Roy Shave officiating. She will be buried next to her beloved husband and infant babies at the cemetery in Warren, Oklahoma. Services are under the direction of Wooster Funeral Home. You may send a condolence to the family at www.woosterfuneralhomes.com. Visitation will be held on Tuesday, December 14 from 9:00 a.m. until 7:00 p.m. The family will receive family and friends from 5:00 p.m. until 7:00 p.m. on Tuesday at the funeral home. Memorials can be made to the Pauls Valley Church of Christ Building Fund, P. O. Box 476, Pauls Valley, OK 73075.

“ Christy, Jim and family,

I am sorry for your loss. I have many happy memories of our families in our Pauls Valley days. Your Mom always had the cookies ready for us when we came in from playing in the tree swing.

I will miss her but I know she is with your Dad and in a better place now.

“ We were so sorry to learn that Joann had passed away. She & Port had to be two of the finest Christians we ever knew, & the 14 yrs. we lived & worshipped in Pauls Valley, we grew quickly to love them both very much.##imported-begin##W.O. & Gloria Clark##imported-end##

“ Dear Jim and Christy:

Mom just found out about your mom's passing after one of our aunts saw the notice in Oklahoma City. We're very sorry to hear the news and wished we could have driven up for the services.

Your mom, along with your dad, were special friends of the family and we all have many, many fond memories of both of them. I doubt if we have ever been able to drive through Paul's Valley without talking about them.

Please let us know if there's anything we can help you with at this time.

“ I only got to meet your mother once, Christy. But for years I've had fun visualizing your family in Pauls Valley...Joanne's Fabrics and your mom's work at the depot...and stories of Joanna and Tommy with their grandmother! And most recently I've pictured you singing with your mother. I've loved the stories and I look forward to seeing more photos to go along with them.

My thoughts are with you and your whole family!

Love,

“ Christy, Jim and families - It is so difficult to live away from families and friends when the presence of loved ones would provide such comfort. I would have been honored to walk down memory lane with you, as you share about your mother this day. The video brought tears and smiles as I recalled your parents. A wonderful family to know as a child, thank you. My prayers and thoughts are with you. Love you all, Judy##imported-begin##Judy Foster Stamper##imported-end##

“ Christy and Jim Edd, I am so sad to hear of your sweet Mother's passing. I worshipped with her for about 20 years and she was truly a Christian example. It really saddens me to see all of us losing our sweet parents, yet we both know they are in a much better place and would not come back even if we could arrange it. It still hurts very much. Your family will be in my prayers.##imported-begin##Luann Ragan Elmore##imported-end##
