

Earl Wayne Layton

April 30, 1947 - June 2, 2012

Earl Wayne Layton of Wynnewood, Oklahoma entered this life April 30, 1947 born to Roy O.W. and Molly (Kaiser) Layton in Burlington, North Carolina. Earl entered eternal life June 2, 2012 at the age of 65 years.

Earl spent his childhood days in Sacramento, California. He graduated from Sidney Lanier High School in Montgomery, Alabama. In the times he was attending school in Montgomery he experienced George Wallace calling out the National Guard to escort students to class and witnessed the walk to Selma. After graduation from high school the family moved to Tokyo, Japan where Earl stayed for several years before returning to California.

Earl loved his grandmother "Sugy" Mary Kaiser, and this was his inspiration for his return to California. He found great satisfaction in being a farmer growing almonds, asparagus, cherries and walnuts. Earl was passionate about riding motorcycles and owned 12 motorcycles at one time. A good motorcycle ride for him was any one from which he walked away. He also was an avid horseman and fisherman.

Earl is remembered by his family as a very compassionate and caring person. He is survived by his parents, Roy and Molly Layton of Wynnewood, OK; brother, Rick Layton and wife Becky of Norman, OK; sister, Deborah Sue Layton of Wynnewood, OK; one grandson and a loving aunt, Teresa Layton of Lawton, OK.
