“ I never met her but she had to be a good person to raise a child like my friend Charlie.

“ Dear Mr. Adkins, Freda, Charles, and Donetha, I have many fond memories of your mom. I was at your house a lot in the old days. Your mom was always so welcoming. She put up with Freda and me listening to records and being silly school girls. She could put us in our place when needed. She took us all to the state fair. It was so hot, but we had to keep the windows rolled up while we were in the city so people would think we had air conditioning. 😊 I remember that she was a hard worker. The house was always spotless. I stopped by to visit her once on a trip back from Alaska. She caught me up on all the news. Praying for peace and comfort for you all. It is so hard losing your mother and wife.

*With love,
