“ In my opinion, Mae was an angel and one of the best ladies I have ever known. We met her in 1991 in Creede, Co. and became close friends. She was like a second mother and best friend all wrapped up into one. We will always have great memories of our travels together and of all the fun we had. She will be greatly missed. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. May the Good Lord grant you comfort and peace. Love, Doug and Kay###imported-begin###Doug and Kay Wilkinson###imported-end###

“ Jesse and I send our love and prayers to all of you. I spent some very special time visiting with Aunt Eva by phone and at the family reunions. She shared many family stories with me. She will be missed, but although she leaves love ones here, she is with her love ones that went before her.###imported-begin###Malcolm M. Vaughan###imported-end###
