

Floyd Dean Brobst

July 30, 1939 - November 2, 2021

Floyd Dean Brobst was born July 30, 1939 to Everett Brobst and Evelyn Warner Brobst in Cleo Springs, Oklahoma and passed from this life on November 2, 2021, in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

Floyd grew up in Oklahoma working on farms hunting and fishing with his father and grandfather, in the Cleo Springs and Ringwood area of Oklahoma. He graduated from Ringwood High School in 1957. After graduation he moved to the Texas Panhandle to work in the oil fields as a roustabout. In 1969, he went to work for Gulf Oil Company as a pumper. While working for Gulf Oil, he worked in Spearman, Texas, Morse, Texas, Pampa, Texas, and Cabinda, Africa. While working in Pampa as a Production Superintendent he was responsible for bringing in one of the largest natural gas fields in the world at that time "The Buffalo Walla".

In 1959, he met the love of his life, Sydney Jo Holley Frakes. She was riding in his 1959 Chevrolet convertible as Miss Borger 1959. They married on March 11, 1961.

Floyd had many interests and passions. He started a Boy Scout troop in Morse, Texas. Horse racing was a passion for him. He began training racehorses in about 1972 with his first win with Rouge Rogue at Canadian River Downs in Borger Texas. Floyd continued to train racehorses through to 2011, winning at Sunland Park, Remington Park, Ruidoso Downs, Raton, New Mexico.

Floyd moved his family to Pauls Valley, Oklahoma in 1979 to a small acreage that is known by the family as “Freedom Farms”, where he raised cattle, trained his racehorses, hunted and fished. He was the biggest PBR fan ever! Floyd’s greatest passion was his family – known by many as Poppy.

“ Deanya, I will miss my yearly telephone visits with your dad, but I know he's with my best friend, Sydney, and they're happy. I saw him last in California when he came for Ericka's engagement party and all he wanted to talk about was his beloved Syd. Before that I remember when I visited them in Oklahoma and he put me on a horse, first and last time! You did a great job on the photos, fun to see him and Syd. I will always miss them. . .
