“ Frank Sawyer was not only a valuable part of my cattle business for many years, but also a close friend that I could confide in when troubles my way. He loved the Lord and had a heart of pure gold. Carolyn and I were saddened by the fact that he had to suffer so long. His pain has ended and it will not be remembered by him as he abides in the glory of his dear Jesus. Our love goes out to his family and friends. Dan and Carolyn Croom.
