In September of 1960, Fred joined the United States Army for a brief time, then transferred to the United States Army National Guard where he was in helicopter maintenance. Fred became President of the Jaycees Club in 1964. Upon leaving the military in 1965, Fred worked as a machinist and supervisor for various companies. He worked passionately in his role as an independent product and service sales representative on behalf of the manufacturing industry until he retired in 2004.

Fred and Donna lived in Duncanville, Texas for 36 years; in White Bluff - Whitney, Texas for 8 years; and then moved back to Wynnewood, Oklahoma in 2008 to be near family.
