Gary worked as a driller in the oilfield for most of his life. His dad Lewis Ledbetter trained him in the oilfield, Gary loved working with his father. He loved time spent with his family on get togethers and birthdays. He also loved fishing with his three boys, target shooting, and just spending time with them. Always teasing and playing with his nephews, nieces, and grandkids. In school he loved football. Gary was a member of a boxing club. Gary held the title of Quickest Amateur Knockout for many years. Celebration of life service will be in Guymon, OK at families convenience and will be announced. Condolences may be sent to the family @www.woosterfuneralhomes.com

Tribute Wall

“ I worked with Gary in the oil field and can say that he was one of the two best drillers I worked with and one of my best friends. I will always remember all the fun and good times we had. And to the family you were everything to him and we miss all him he was one of kind.

“ I will always remember Gary's smile and laugh. He was always fun to be around. One of the fondest memories of Gary was with my son Aaron, he would sit on Gary's lap and repeat anything Gary said. Gary would always laugh. I will miss you my dear cousin and look forward to seeing you again one day.
