“ Gary was such a loving, caring and wonderful cousin. He was always happy, smiling and he gave the best hugs. I remember being in awe of him when he was younger- he was so strong and protective. If you were around Gary- you felt safe! He loved his family and his extended family. My family and I are so sad that Gary is gone, but we rejoice knowing he will be with the Lord forever. Rest in peace Gary - we LOVE you! Our heartfelt sympathies, and love go out to our Aunt Shirley, Larry and his family, and Gary's family. He will be missed and he will be always be remembered. God bless you all...with love, Stan and Karen Goodnight & family, Sherri McManus & family, Kristina McManus and family.

“ My deepest sympathies for Gary’s family especially his loving mom and his brother Larry. I have very fond memories of Gary when we were kids growing up on South Paul Hill.

Here is one dear story some of you do not know about: A group of us Jr High/High schoolers were over at The Delaplain’s home one evening. Gary told me he had never kissed a girl and asked if I could teach him. I said “Of Course!” I was very flattered at the time thinking “Wow ! he must think I am a good teacher of this!” So I said, “ Take your forearm like this, and kiss it .” I demonstrated and I had him practice several times on his arm critiquing as he went along. When I thought he had kissing his arm down well. I let him practice kissing me until I thought he Had it perfect. Then I told him, “ I think you are ready to kiss any girl with no problem.” I have never forgot that day.

Yes .. we had great times on Walnut and South Paul Hills!

“ Gary was a dear kind soul. We all had great times running around S. Paul and Walnut Hills, Dewberry Park before we were teenagers. I will never forget our last conversation in Walmart. He had been recovering from a stroke and he had his mom with him shopping. He will be greatly missed! RIP Gary Mac!

“ Gary Mac was one of a kind. He was a close friend that I will miss so much. He was alot of fun, kind, had a heart bigger than most and always stood up for the underdog. I'm so glad and grateful that I could call him my friend. May he have all the peace, joy and happiness he knew and believed was waiting for him when he crossed GOD's heavenly shore!
