

Gena Faye King

May 18, 1920 - February 9, 2009

Faye was born May 18, 1920 twelve miles south of Lindsay into the loving and caring family of Luther (Luke) and Lucy Newby. She grew up with two sisters and three brothers. Faye was the twin sister of Ray Newby of Lindsay. Faye had a special loving relationship with her niece Patsy Roller of Lindsay.

Faye's working life as a Nurse began with the Poole Clinic in Lindsay and eventually the Lindsay hospital for over thirty five years. Faye retired in the early 1980s from the Lindsay Hospital. She will be remembered as an Angel by those for whom she gave care. After retiring, Faye helped her husband Doil with the family furniture business while continuing the loving pastime of grand parenting.

Faye was active in the Sunday School at Calvary Baptist Church in Lindsay for many years. She enjoyed gardening and cooking as well as fishing and traveling. She often traveled with her husband Doil and her brother Ray and wife Von to beautiful mountains, beaches, musical houses and festivals throughout our great U.S.A.

Faye's commitment to God and family as well as her personal strength, compassion and strong values were a blessing to all who knew her. After leaving Oklahoma in 2004, her joy in life continued in Fairfax and Portsmouth, Virginia with her daughter, son-in-law, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Life is truly a journey and Faye traveled far and wide on her way home to the Father. We will miss her forever.

“ Faye is indeed remembered as an angel in my heart. She was my nurse when I had surgery at age 14 and again when I had my first child. She was a special lady to me since then. Later in life she was my mother-in-law's best friend. May God especially bless each one of her precious family.##imported-begin##Leota McCoy##imported-end##

“ I am sad to hear the news of Faye's passing. As a girl I lived close to Paul Newby's family, as a young woman I went into the furniture store often just to visit with Faye and Doyle. She was a wonderful lady.##imported-begin##Diane (Southern) Dutton##imported-end##
