“ All of my memories of you are pleasant and good. You had the best additude about everything even when times were bad. I love you and I always will love you. I will never in my life taste an apple pie that will compare to yours. My children use and cherish the quilts that you made for me in my childhood. You made a lasting impression in my life as a good citizen, good christian, and a GREAT! grandmother to me. The past few years for you have been rough and unfair, but now that is past and you have reunited with Floyd. I love you.
