June married Charles Oliver (Ollie) Walker, on May 5, 1955, in Lawton, Oklahoma. They ultimately moved to Pauls Valley where they raised their family. June devoted her life to her family and home and truly enjoyed the twenty years she spent as a foster grandparent at Jackson Elementary after Ollie's passing in 1997. June instilled in her children and grandchildren, that family always came first. Her favorite thing in the world was getting together with her entire family and cooking for them. She was a wonderful cook, and she made the best chicken and dumplings, pot roast, and her homemade pies were delicious. She enjoyed gardening and flowers, word searches, and watching western movies. June loved her Siamese cats, Siam and Sami, and holding Debbie's teacup poodles. She loved watching the Dallas Cowboys and the OU Sooners play football. June will forever be remembered as a wonderful Mama and Grandma.

June was preceded in death by her husband Ollie as well as her parents, 4 brothers, 5 sisters and her son-in-law Carl Spor. She is survived by son Cecil Walker and his wife Kim of Guthrie, Ok.; two daughters - Brenda Spor of Lexington, Ok., and Debbie Gray and husband Eddie of Lexington, Ok.; eight
