

George Wilburn Moore, Jr.

October 12, 1929 - May 13, 2007

George W. Moore, Jr. of Elmore City, Oklahoma was born to George W. “Bud” and lola (Newby) Moore on October 12, 1929 in Arthur, Oklahoma and passed from this life on May 13, 2007 in Elmore City, Oklahoma at the age of 77 years.

George grew up and attended school in Arthur, Oklahoma. He and his family loved to play music. George also loved the outdoors, horses and being around young people. On May 17, 1952, George married Mary Barrick in Duncan, Oklahoma. He served his country in the U. S. Army during the Korean War. George retired from the Elmore City School system in 1995 where he worked in support personnel and was a bus driver. He was a past member of the C. B. Club, Round Up Club, VFW, American Legion and briefly served on the city council in Elmore. In his spare time, George would hang out at “the shop” and enjoyed visiting with everybody that came along. He fed and counted cows for his son Kevin for the last couple of years. George loved and cared deeply for his family and close friends. The most important things he taught others about life were to be honest and treat people the way you would want to be treated. Also, if you didn’t have anything good to say about someone, don’t say anything at all.

“ I rode "Bus 3" for years, and George was always nice to me. When the weather was bad he would drive the bus up our driveway so I wouldn't have to walk so far. He was a kind person. I'm sorry for your loss.##imported-begin##Jennifer and Jay Earp##imported-end##
