

Georgia Lee Smith

December 31, 1930 - June 5, 2007

On December 31, 1930, in Garvin County, a blessed event took place. Georgia Lee Smith was born to George Smith and Nelley Brooks. Georgia grew up in Pauls Valley where she attended Dunbar School. She professed her faith in Christ at an early age and united with the Bethlehem Baptist Church. Georgia was a faithful member of Bethlehem Baptist Church where she served in various capacities including Sunday School Superintendent, President of the Mission, Georgia sung in the choir and also taught a Sunday school class, she was one of the Mother's of the Church. She met and married Ernest Lightesy. Georgia was active in her community. She was part of the Homemaker's extension where she served as President for the New Path. Georgia was known for her love of remodeling. Georgia worked for several families in Pauls Valley; she also worked at the Colonial Nursing Home and as a custodian for 25 years at the Presbyterian Church. She worked at Pauls Valley General Hospital until retiring. Georgia enjoyed going fishing and sharing with the children in the community. She will be long remembered for her love of people, clothes and shoes.

Georgia was preceded in death by her parents and her husband. “ To the family of Georgia Smith

Georgia attended Christian Life Church for a several years when Raven was in school. We grew to love and respect her greatly. She was always faithful in her support of the church. She was an amazing woman who could work circles around most every one else she knew. She always made me laugh. I loved her and have missed seeing her in the last few years. We will always remember her.
