

Geraldine A. "Judy" Williams

November 13, 1933 - April 23, 2014

Geraldine "Judy" Carlton Barnes Williams, 80, of Moore, Oklahoma was called home on April 23, 2014.

She was born November 13, 1933, in Elmore City, Oklahoma. Judy was the 10th of twelve children born to George and Ethel (Duncan) Carlton. She graduated from Elmore City High School in 1952. May of 1952, she married Emmett Barnes. They lived in the Roady Community. Together they had two sons, Emmett Jay and Steve Ray. Emmett Sr. passed away on August 25, 1963 following an oilfield accident. Judy and the boys moved to Moore in 1967. One of the first friends she made there is Kay Monroe. They were many things to each other. Always relying on the other to "BE THERE" always shopping, eating, walking and talking and talking. Kay is like family to many of us who know, love and appreciate all she did for and with Judy. A true friend indeed! Judy married O. P. Williams in 1974, he passed away on November 15, 2010. Others preceding her in death, her parents, brothers, Wilburn, A. C. "Dinger" and Roy Carlton. Sisters, Lethe Coe, Zettie Westreicher, Ruth Taylor Dobbins and Frances Taylor.

Surviving Judy are her sons: Emmett and wife Beverly of Atlanta, Georgia Steve and wife Mary of Elmore City, Oklahoma.

Two step-sons: Terry and Lynn Williams of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

Four granddaughters: Kellie, Julia, Candace and Beki

One grandson: Beau

One step-granddaughter: Lisa

Six Great-grandchildren: Sean, Aiden, Owen, Rebecca, Stella and Ezra

One brother: George and wife Lou of Wynnewood, Oklahoma

Three sisters: Roxie Dean of Blue Ridge, Texas

Emily Lynn of Elmore City, Oklahoma

Hazel Clark and husband Jerry of Tulsa, Oklahoma

Many beloved nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Judy was a long time member of the Eastern Avenue Baptist Church in

Moore. She was a special lady, loving mother and sister. Will truly be missed by all who loved her.

“ Through my parents, Clifford and Dorothy Canary, we met OP and Judy many years ago.

They were dear friends for over 30 years, in the Shriners, traveling to Mexico, a trip to Alaska together, camping and fishing away many hours! We loved Judy and OP, they were always smiling and enjoyed life very much. They were faithful friends, who while able, would do anything to help anyone. Judy will be missed now along with OP. Mike and Jan Talkington, Newcastle, OK.
