“ There are so many memories there would never be enough room to put them on here. But my most favorite is that Baelor would "sneak" off to your house every Saturday while I was cleaning to ask you to play catch with him and even though you did not feel like it you put that glove on every Saturday and played catch with him for hours. He loved "sneaking" to grannies house. I love you so much and you will be dearly missed. #untilwemeetagain
