I am so sorry for the loss of your Dad/Grandpa, and for the extremely difficult time you are going through. Yet we can only marvel at God's timing... I know Gene is suffering no more, and it is some comfort to me personally to know that he is sharing the good times with Rat in a place with no pain, no sorrow, no confusion, no tears.... God bless you all as you face these times of trial and triumph. I love you,

“ Mary and family, In hospice care I have found that every person is special and unique in their own way, but sometimes there are patients we care for that touch our hearts and leave their handprint forever. Gene was that kind of patient. Although we did not care for him long, he was indeed a wonderful man.##imported-begin##Ramona Henry##imported-end##
