“ Years ago I worked at TG&Y. One Christmas Eve Hubert came thru my line with cologne and perfume. He paid . Then he gave it to all of the clerks in the store. That was one of my favorite memories. He always was kind and happy when you saw him. He will be missed. Joanie Townsend

who does all he can for his family,
A gentle soul
who dedicated his whole life to providing for our family ♡♡ He is our tower of strength who would go to any length to see us happy his every word A guiding light teaching us wrong from right through his words Extraordinarily gentle not one bit judgmental but he know how to yet gets his message across A gentle love Man forever reliant always there for us no matter what His a reassuring voice a great source of advice when life proves challenging This man is our Steady rock when life gives us a knock always getting us through the bad times he Never thinks twice is quick to sacrifice his own needs for ours he is So full of fun loves to see everyone making each of us feel special Thank for you being the best man I know papa we all love you with all our heart

“ Hubert was one of the sweetest, most loving and caring man I’ve ever known. I enjoyed our talks and friendship the past several years. He was proud of his family and never failed to brag on them. May God grant you all peace and comfort during this time.
