“ I did not meet this great lady God bless her soul but I do know her daughter Zora and continue to call her my friend. To me the fact that this great lady has produced and raised a wonderful human being such as Zora is more than enough to call her a great lady. As I pay respect and communicate my condolences to the family I do give special thoughts to my good friend Zora who will continue to occupy a special place in my mind. God bless you all.

To all of the Lobaugh Family,

I remember seeing your Mother sit with her chin in her hand so often. She was a deep thinker and a wonderful, kind and loving woman. I feel very lucky to have grown up in a neighborhood where she was one of the Mothers. In todays world it may take a village to raise children, but in Pauls Valley during the 50s & 60s it only took a few Mothers on North Pecan Street to get the job done. I recall with such fondness the hours spent playing in your room. I remember how she painted your walls with a bright blue paint that we could draw on with chalk. I thought she was just about the best Mother in the whole world for doing something so fun. You were all so blessed. My prayers are with you. Judy Irwin-Weaver
