“ The Kidwell family knew Jack and his family at ESBC in the 1970-80's. He was a fine man, always faithful and consistent, and patient with our kids as youth in church. We hold fond memories of him and Lucille and Eric.

“ Jack was a wonderful man. He always greeted me with a smile and a little hug and reminded me of all the things he and my dad went through when they were young. In my books, there aren't many men that were as good a man as Jack Ince was. I am sure his family will miss him terribly. Love and prayers to you all.
