

Jackie Lee Burch

July 30, 1956 - August 31, 2016

Jackie Lee Burch was born on July 22, 1956 in Farmington, New Mexico to Robert Lee and Velma Louise (Henry) Burch and passed from this life on August 31, 2016 in Rowlett, Texas after a courageous battle with cancer. Jackie attended Lindsay Schools but quit before graduating high school because he became tired of asking his mom for money and wanted to earn his own. Jackie broke out into the oil field and worked there until cancer retired him. He performed every oil field job from being a worm to the company man. Even when he was the boss he wasn't afraid to be out on the rig floor getting dirty and helping his "hands" get the job done. Jackie loved his work and lived his whole life with few regrets about the time and effort spent in the oil patch. Jackie married Jill Johnson on August 21, 2012.

Jackie enjoyed tinkering in his shop, and he actually liked yard work. He liked making things work, lights, hardware and batteries, or any parts required in taking care of equipment and vehicles. He had fun fixing things for people and was entertained by anything that transformed from one thing into another. He was an enthusiastic motorcyclist. Jackie loved animals, and his dog Fierce was very special to him and will miss Jackie so much.

Some of the events that made an impact on Jackie's life were losing his brother Danny at an early age, going overseas for work, and even riding a camel. The most important thing Jackie taught others about life was that any job worth doing is worth doing right, and he had a "get'r done" attitude.

Jackie is survived by:

Wife – Jill Burch of the home

Children – Dylan Burch, Emma, Joe and Jon Johnson

Brother – Jerry Burch

Jackie is preceded in death by his parents Robert Lee & Velma Louise Burch; brothers Danny Burch and Donald Burch

I first met Jackie in Lindsay, Oklahoma in summer of 1972. We had many fun times in our younger years with a lot of friends in Lindsay, Western Oklahoma, & Oklahoma City. We also had many fun times on our motorcycles & lots of summer meetings at Lake Murray in the summer time. Jackie create many friends personally & through his life in the oilfield in Texas, Oklahoma, & overseas. Jackie was very hard-worker, fast learner, intelligent & was respected by a lot people. Jackie touched a lot people heart in his lifetime. I will always miss his smile & laugh. Jackie is the one that give nickname of Bubbles. I will never forget his legacy he shared in my life. Me & Jackie lost contact over the years with me working overseas for 25 years. I have tried to find out were Jackie was living through years after he left Harley Davidson in Moore, Oklahoma but couldn't find out were exactly he was. All I new he was living Texas. “ In Memory of Jackie Burch

Ellen and I met Jackie for the first time at Christmas 2015 when we traveled to Josephine, Texas to spend Christmas with Jackie and the family he so loved and cared for.

At first sight, he came across right away as an exuberant, smiling, full of energy person. Even though he was gravely ill, he took pride and joy in showing off his work shed where he re-built Harleys.

Everything from tools to drills was so immaculately organized and clean. He seemed to take pride in his workshop. It was his place of escape from what he was undergoing with his illness. We are certain that being in the workshop was his way of staying mentally and physically active and not dwelling on the pain he was suffering internally.

On Christmas day morning we all opened our Christmas presents together one at a time. He was like a kid in a candy store admiring the gifts he received from the family with love showing all over his face.

This is the Jackie we remember today. His soul is now at peace in a very heavenly place. The Lord will now watch over him.
