Tara & Family- hold on to the treasured memories. Daddy Mac was one of a kind!! His grumble made me smile. I can hear him now asking me, “why aren’t you working?” He definitely made a joyous impact on all who have had the pleasure of knowing him and he will be deeply missed.

“ I met Jim when he married my good friend Nellie Barnes. He was a hard working man, always having more than one iron in the fire! I loved him for the way he provided for Nellie and Tara. Especially the care he gave Nellie in her last days. Tara can't believe you worked with your daddy 30 years! I know you all will miss him, he was a good man.

Love you guys,
Roberta Rakes

“ I am saddened to hear of Jimmy's death. I will always treasure the countless Sunday's, after Church, when we would wander the fields behind your home. Jimmy was a great friend and I will hold onto those fond memories. Jerlyn and Leoda, my thoughts are with you today. Love you both—
