“ I am very sorry to hear of Don's death. I cherish the memories of his singing and playing, he had such a beautiful voice, and could sing as good as any one on the radio. He was especially good on Marty Robbins songs. I think of him still when I hear Marty Robbins on the radio, and the look of love in Eula Mae's face as he sang. She was so proud of him. The whole family loved him dearly, and looked forward to his coming home when he could.
