“ Dear Danny & Connie, Jean was my idol as a child growing up just up the road. I was sure she was the perfect child and teenager. Though a few years older than I, she always had time to spend with me. As an adult, she was a friend to my Grandmother, Flossie Long and my Mother, Normada Ivy. The last visit my Mother made outside the nursing home was to Carl and Jean's. I know you will miss her loving spirit. I do know that she loved you with all her heart. Pat Scott

“ Dear Family, You are in my thoughts and prayers. Jean was a a wonderful wife, mother, cousin and friend. Most importantly she was as true Christian woman. Proverbs 31 describes her perfectly. All my love, Darla

I will always remember my sweet cousin. We had many long conversation sharing news of our children, grandchildren and gr. grandchildren. Although we lived many, many miles away from each we always loved our time on the phone. May our Lord and Savior bless her family and give them peace.
